

COMPLAINTS POLICY

Procedure and contacts:

We hope LanguageUK students are satisfied with the courses, accommodation and all aspects of their time with LanguageUK.

If a student is unsure, they should speak to a LanguageUK staff member in order to resolve any issues. Our aim is to solve problems as quickly as possible, so that students can get the most out of their studies and their time here.

- If a student has a problem with their class, they should speak to their teacher or Head of English.
- If a student has a problem with their accommodation or a welfare issue, they should speak to our accommodation officer or welfare officer.

LanguageUK will always listen to the problem and try to find the best solution.

Speaking to LanguageUK (Canterbury head office)

Email: info@languageuk.co.uk

Tel: 01227 455556

Principal: Kerem Sahin

Vice Principal: Professor Ece Inan

Head of English: Noel Ensoll Academic Coordinator: Clare Roberts

Student Administration and Welfare: Verity Sessions and Professor Ece Inan

Accommodation officer: Joanna Galek (Canterbury) and Liane Jago (Faversham)

If a student wants to make a formal complaint against a decision that has been made, then the student will need to do this in writing to the Vice Principle Professor Ece Inan.

Each complaint must be made as an individual and not part of a group and each complaint will be dealt with separately.

First, you need to show that you have tried to resolve your complaint through your provider's complaints procedure. The management of the provider may wish to respond to and/or address your concerns. You will be in the strongest position if your complaint is made while you are enrolled. If you leave and then complain, you may be more likely to experience difficulties securing prompt responses from the provider. Also, it would be wise to consider any visa conditions prior to leaving.

You need to show that you have read the provider's Terms and Conditions in relation to your complaint, and that you have made a satisfactory effort to try and resolve your complaint with the institution directly.

If the student is still unsatisfied, they may also contact:

BAC

Ground Floor

14 Devonshire Square

London

EC2M 4YT

Tel number 0300 330 1400 or email: info@the-bac.org

BAC can only pursue a complaint if you provide us with written and signed authorisation to do so.

Before submitting your complaint to BAC, please ensure that you have included the following:

1. A full description of all circumstances leading to the complaint being made.
2. A signed statement indicating that you authorise BAC to contact the institution on your behalf.
3. All documentation relating to the complaint being made, including, but not limited to:
 - enrolment letters
 - any receipts for payments made to the institution
 - any visa letters sent and received (if relevant to the complaint)
 - any correspondence between you and the institution which relates to this complaint (this should include documentary evidence that the provider's own complaints procedure has been used and exhausted)

- the provider's terms and conditions and/or refund policy, if you have access to this
- Any other relevant documentary evidence

N.B. Please ensure that you retain copies of all submitted documents as it will not be possible for BAC to return them.
